ORDER DISMISSING APPEAL

This is a proper person appeal from a district court order setting aside a procedural default. Third Judicial District Court, Churchill County; Wayne A. Pederson, Judge.

Respondent has moved to dismiss this appeal, arguing, among other things, that the challenged order is not appealable and that appellant is not aggrieved by the district court's order because the order granted appellant's request to set aside the default that had been entered against him. Appellant has not opposed the motion. We grant respondent's motion and dismiss this appeal.

We note first that an order setting aside the entry of a procedural default is not appealable.¹ Moreover, because the district court granted appellant's request and set aside the default against him, appellant has not been adversely affected by the district court's ruling, and therefore, appellant is not aggrieved by the district court's order.² Accordingly, we lack jurisdiction over this appeal and therefore grant respondent's motion and

ORDER this appeal DISMISSED.³

²See NRAP 3A(a) (providing that only an aggrieved party may appeal from an order); Valley Bank of Nevada v. Ginsburg, 110 Nev. 440, 874 P.2d 729 (1994) (holding that a party is aggrieved within the meaning of NRAP 3A(a) when either a personal right or right of property is adversely affected by a court ruling).

³In light of this order, we deny as moot all other requests for relief currently pending in this appeal.
