ORDER DISMISSING APPEAL

This is a proper person appeal from district court orders confirming a master's findings and recommendation concerning child support and other matters. Ninth Judicial District Court, Douglas County; Michael P. Gibbons, Judge.

All three orders appealed here were entered by the district court several years ago, in October 2002, May 2004, and July 2004, and the notices of entry were served on appellant in 2002 and 2004. Under NRAP 4(a)(1), appellant had thirty days to file her notices of appeal from the date the notice of entry of each order was served. Thus, appellant's notices of appeal were due some time in 2002 and 2004, respectively. Appellant filed her notice of appeal on July 12, 2007, several years late. Since appellant's notice of appeal was untimely filed, we lack jurisdiction to consider this appeal.¹ Accordingly, we ¹See Healy v. Volkswagenwerk, 103 Nev. 329, 741 P.2d 432 (1987) (noting that an untimely notice of appeal fails to vest jurisdiction in this court).

ORDER this appeal DISMISSED.²
