ORDER DECLINING TO IMPOSE TEMPORARY SUSPENSION

This is a petition under SCR 111 concerning attorney Susan Money, based on her conviction for one misdemeanor count of resisting or obstructing a police officer. This crime does not satisfy the criteria set forth in SCR 111(6), under which a temporary suspension is mandatory, see SCR 111(7), but it did not appear to be a minor offense and appeared to adversely reflect on Money's fitness to practice law. Accordingly, we directed Money to show cause why an immediate temporary suspension should not be imposed and the matter referred for formal discipline. Money filed a timely response.

Having considered the petition and the response, we conclude that Money's offense does not warrant the imposition of a temporary suspension. The State Bar remains free, however, to exercise its discretion in determining whether to proceed under SCR 105.

It is so ORDERED.
