TRACIE K. LINDEMAN
CLERK OF SUPREME COURT
BY S. Young
DEPUTY CLERK

ORDER OF AFFIRMANCE

This is an appeal from a judgment of conviction, pursuant to a guilty plea, of causing substantial bodily harm to another by driving under the influence of alcohol. Second Judicial District Court, Washoe County; Patrick Flanagan, Judge. Appellant does not challenge the judgment of conviction or sentence and instead argues that this court should interpret the notice of appeal as an expression of appellant's dissatisfaction with the guilty plea and remand for appellant to file a post-conviction motion to withdraw the guilty plea. While appellant may be dissatisfied with the guilty plea, his remedy, if any, at this point lies in filing a motion to withdraw the plea or a post-conviction petition for a writ of habeas corpus pursuant to NRS chapter 34 in the district court. See Bryant v. State, 102 Nev. 268, 272, 721 P.2d 364, 367-68 (1986). A remand therefore is unnecessary. Because appellant has not demonstrated error, we

ORDER the judgment of conviction AFFIRMED.
