ORDER DENYING WRIT PETITION

This is a proper person writ petition. While the petition's purpose is not clear, it appears that petitioner seeks some action by this court concerning an incident that apparently occurred in the prison yard. The petition does not contain a clear statement concerning the incident or the relief requested by this court, as required by NRAP 21(a)(3). Also, the petition has no supporting documentation or affidavit. NRAP 21(a)(4); NRS 34.160. Finally, it seems likely that factual disputes about what happened in the prison yard will require resolution, and thus the petition is not properly initiated in this court. Round Hill Gen. Imp. Dist. v. Newman, 97 Nev. 601, 637 P.2d 534 (1981). Accordingly, we conclude that extraordinary relief is not warranted, NRAP 21(b)(1); Smith v. District Court, 107 Nev. 674, 818 P.2d 849 (1991), and

ORDER the petition DENIED.¹

¹Petitioner's failure to pay the filing fee or to demonstrate good cause for waiving the fee, NRAP 21(e), constitutes an independent basis for denying this petition.
