ORDER OF AFFIRMANCE

This is a proper person appeal from an order of the district court denying a “motion for reduction of sentence.”¹ Eighth Judicial District Court, Clark County; David Wall, Judge.

In his motion filed on July 19, 2010, appellant claimed that the State improperly inflated the amount of stolen property appellant possessed. Given the relief sought, we conclude that the district court correctly construed appellant’s motion to be a motion to modify or correct illegal sentence. Appellant failed to demonstrate that the district court relied on mistaken assumptions regarding his criminal record that worked to his extreme detriment. See Edwards v. State, 112 Nev. 704, 708, 918 P.2d 321, 324 (1996). Appellant failed to demonstrate that his sentence was facially illegal, see NRS 205.060; NRS 205.275, or that the district court lacked jurisdiction. See Edwards, 112 Nev. at 708, 918 P.2d at 324. We therefore conclude that the district court did not err in denying appellant's motion. Accordingly, we

¹This appeal has been submitted for decision without oral argument, NRAP 34(f)(3), and we conclude that the record is sufficient for our review and briefing is unwarranted. See Lockett v. Warden, 91 Nev. 681, 682, 541 P.2d 910, 911 (1975).
