ORDER OF AFFIRMANCE

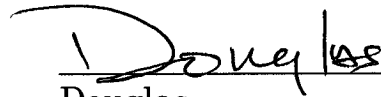

This is a proper person appeal from an order of the district court denying appellant's "Motion to Correct Parole and Probation Report Presentence Investigation Report and Seal Record."¹ Fifth Judicial District Court, Nye County; John P. Davis, Judge.

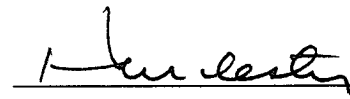

In his motion, filed on September 24, 2010, appellant requested the district court to seal portions of the district court record and to correct a number of alleged errors in his presentence investigation report. To the extent appellant requested the district court to seal records, appellant failed to demonstrate that the district court abused its discretion in declining to seal any records beyond the presentence investigation report and other mental health documents that were already sealed. See NRS 179.245(5). To the extent appellant challenges the denial of his ¹This appeal has been submitted for decision without oral argument, NRAP 34(f)(3), and we conclude that the record is sufficient for our review and briefing is unwarranted. See Luckett v. Warden, 91 Nev. 681, 682, 541 P.2d 910, 911 (1975).

motion to correct the presentence investigation report, we lack jurisdiction, as no statute or court rule permits an appeal from an order denying the aforementioned motion. Castillo v. State, 106 Nev. 349, 352, 792 P.2d 1133, 1135 (1990). Accordingly, we
