²Appellant appeared to claim that due to his classification he was denied the ability to earn additional credits. Appellant did not demonstrate that he was entitled to any additional credits as he was not entitled to receive minimum-custody credits.

³We have reviewed all documents that appellant has submitted in proper person to the clerk of this court in this matter, and we conclude that no relief based upon those submissions is warranted. To the extent that appellant has attempted to present claims or facts in those submissions which were not previously presented in the proceedings below, we have declined to consider them in the first instance.
