ORDER DISMISSING APPEAL

This is a proper person appeal from district court orders denying appellants' motion for leave to amend their complaint and granting motions to dismiss the complaint. Our review of the documents before us on appeal reveals a jurisdictional defect. Specifically, it appears that the district court has not yet resolved all of appellants' claims. In particular, appellants' claims against respondent James F. Sloan appear to remain pending. Thus, it appears that no final judgment has been entered. See NRAP 3A(b)(1) (providing for an appeal from a final judgment). Lee v. GNLV Corp., 116 Nev. 424, 996 P.2d 416 (2000).

Accordingly, as we lack jurisdiction to consider this appeal, we
ORDER this appeal DISMISSED.¹

¹As we conclude that we lack jurisdiction over this appeal, appellants need not file the civil proper person appeal statement and transcript request forms sent to them.

In light of this order, we deny as moot all pending requests for relief.
