CLERK OF SUPREME COURT

CHIEF DEPUTY CLERK

ORDER IMPOSING RECIPROCAL DISCIPLINE

This is a petition under SCR 114 for reciprocal discipline of attorney Ryan R. West, based on his public reprimand in Utah. West did not self-report his Utah discipline as required by SCR 114(1), and he has not responded to the petition. See SCR 114(3).¹

West was publicly reprimanded by the Ethics and Discipline Committee of the Utah Supreme Court on June 28, 2012, for failing to provide competent representation to his client, failing to communicate adequately with his client and to keep the client informed about developments, charging an unreasonable fee given his lack of experience in tax cases, and violating the Utah Rules of Professional Conduct (RPC). In so doing, West was found to have violated Utah RPC 1.1, equivalent to ¹West has been suspended from the practice of law in Nevada since August 2013 for failing to pay his State Bar membership fees, see SCR 98(9)-(12), and for failing to complete his continuing legal education requirements, see SCR 212(5).

Nevada RPC 1.1 (competence); Utah RPC 1.4, equivalent to Nevada RPC 1.4 (communication); Utah RPC 1.5, equivalent to Nevada RPC 1.5 (fees); and Utah RPC 8.4, equivalent to Nevada RPC 8.4 (misconduct). No aggravating or mitigating circumstances were mentioned.

SCR 114(4) provides that this court shall impose identical reciprocal discipline unless the attorney demonstrates or this court finds that at least one of four factors is present: (1) the procedure in the other jurisdiction denied the attorney due process; (2) there was such an infirmity of proof of the misconduct in the other jurisdiction that this court cannot accept the other court's decision; (3) substantially different discipline is warranted in this state; or (4) the established misconduct does not constitute misconduct under the rules of this state. Discipline elsewhere is res judicata, as SCR 114(5) provides that "[i]n all other respects, a final adjudication in another jurisdiction that an attorney has engaged in misconduct conclusively establishes the misconduct for the purposes of a disciplinary proceeding in this state."

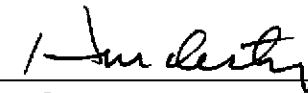

We are not persuaded that any of the exceptions apply to this case. We therefore grant the petition for reciprocal discipline. Ryan R.

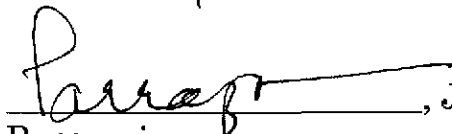

West is hereby publicly reprimanded. The State Bar shall comply with the requirements of SCR 121.1.

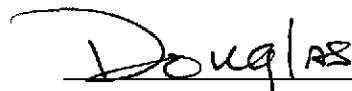

It is so ORDERED.
