ORDER DISMISSING APPEALS

On February 27, 2015, this court entered an order summarizing the numerous extensions of time granted to appellants based on the parties' ongoing settlement negotiations. Our order directed appellants to file and serve the opening brief and appendix by April 14, 2015, and cautioned that failure to comply could result in the imposition of sanctions, including the dismissal of this appeal. Instead of an opening brief, appellants have filed a "Notice of Approved Settlement" informing this court that the parties have received approval of the settlement from the FDIC and are "in the process of executing the previously negotiated settlement agreement terms.” Based on appellants’ representation that the parties have reached a settlement, these appeals are dismissed.

It is so ORDERED.
