

IN THE SUPREME COURT OF THE STATE OF NEVADA

JOHN DICOSTANTINO, AN INDIVIDUAL; AND NEWLIN
WARDEN, AN INDIVIDUAL,
Appellants,

vs.

FDIC, AS RECEIVER FOR COMMUNITY BANK OF NEVADA,
FSB,

Respondent.

JOHN DICOSTANTINO, AN
INDIVIDUAL; AND NEWLIN
WARDEN, AN INDIVIDUAL,

Appellants,

vs.

FDIC, AS RECEIVER FOR COMMUNITY BANK OF NEVADA,
FSB,

Respondent.

No. 63706

FILED

APR 24 2015

TRAGIE K. LINDEMAN
CLERK OF SUPREME COURT
BY CHIEF DEPUTY CLERK

No. 64303

ORDER DISMISSING APPEALS

On February 27, 2015, this court entered an order summarizing the numerous extensions of time granted to appellants based on the parties' ongoing settlement negotiations. Our order directed appellants to file and serve the opening brief and appendix by April 14, 2015, and cautioned that failure to comply could result in the imposition of sanctions, including the dismissal of this appeal. Instead of an opening brief, appellants have filed a "Notice of Approved Settlement" informing this court that the parties have received approval of the settlement from the FDIC and are "in the process of executing the previously negotiated

