ORDER OF AFFIRMANCE

This is a proper person appeal from an order of the district court dismissing appellant's petition for a writ of habeas corpus.

On June 19, 1998, appellant filed a proper person petition for a writ of habeas corpus in the district court. The State opposed the petition. Appellant filed several supplemental documents in the district court. The district court declined to appoint counsel to represent appellant or to conduct an evidentiary hearing. On May 15, 2000, the district court dismissed appellant's petition. This appeal followed.

In his petition, appellant first raised numerous claims challenging the conditions of his confinement. Based upon our review of the record, we conclude that the district court did not err in dismissing these claims. Appellant's claims challenging the conditions of his confinement are not cognizable in a habeas corpus petition.<sup>1</sup>

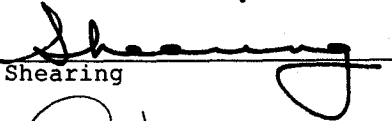

Next, it appears that appellant argued that he had forfeited a total of 249 days of statutory good time credit as a result of due process violations at prison disciplinary hearings conducted on October 29, 1993, and January 2, 1996. Appellant failed to provide sufficient specific factual allegations in support of these claims.<sup>2</sup> Thus, we conclude the district court did not err in determining appellant was not entitled to relief.

Having reviewed the record on appeal, and for the reasons set forth above, we conclude that appellant is not entitled to relief and that briefing and oral argument are unwarranted.<sup>3</sup> Accordingly, we

ORDER the judgment of the district court AFFIRMED.
