ORDER OF AFFIRMANCE

Lamar Alexander appeals from an order of the district court denying an amended petition for writ of habeas corpus filed on February 1, 2016.¹ Eighth Judicial District Court, Clark County; Jessie Elizabeth Walsh, Judge.

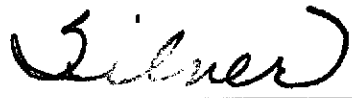

Alexander argues his parole should not have been revoked and specifically challenges the district court's oral findings of fact regarding his parole violation for associating with convicted felons. We defer to factual findings of the district court that are supported by substantial evidence in the record. Cf. Lader v. Warden, 121 Nev. 682, 686, 120 P.3d 1164, 1166 (2005) (deferring in the context of a postconviction petition for writ of habeas corpus). The district court found an inmate phoned a third party who then connected the inmate with Alexander. Substantial evidence in
