ORDER DENYING PETITION

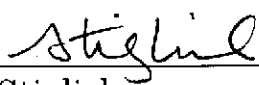

This original petition for a writ of mandamus challenges a district court order denying a motion for partial judgment on the pleadings. Petitioners have failed to include the challenged district court order or the motion and related pleadings in the record submitted to this court. NRAP 21(a)(4) (providing that a petition for extraordinary relief must provide this court with any order of the district court and parts of the trial court record that are essential to understanding the issues presented in the petition). Without that information, the writ petition does not show that the law clearly compels a writ in petitioners' favor, and petitioners have not shown that writ relief is warranted. See NRS 34.160; Pan v. Eighth Judicial Dist.

Court, 120 Nev. 222, 228-29, 88 P.3d 840, 844 (2004). Thus, we conclude that our intervention by way of extraordinary relief is not warranted. See NRAP 21(b); Smith v. Eighth Judicial Dist. Court, 107 Nev. 674, 677, 818 P.2d 849, 851 (1991). Accordingly, we

ORDER the petition DENIED.
