DEPUTY CLERK

ORDER OF AFFIRMANCE

Raymond G. Padilla appeals from an order of the district court denying a “motion for county jail time.”¹ Eighth Judicial District Court, Clark County; Michael Villani, Judge.

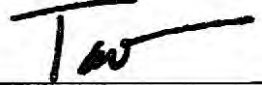

In his October 25, 2018, motion, Padilla requested the district court to apply 305 days of presentence credit toward his sentence. The district court concluded Padilla’s time in presentence confinement was already credited toward the sentence for a prior conviction and, therefore, Padilla could not receive any additional presentence credits for the sentence ¹As it appears the district court construed the motion as a postconviction petition for a writ of habeas corpus, see Griffin v. State, 122 Nev. 737, 744, 137 P.3d 1165, 1169-70 (2006), this court has jurisdiction to consider Padilla’s appeal in this matter, see NRS 34.575(1).

he is serving in this matter. See NRS 176.055(1). The record supports the district court's findings. Accordingly, we ORDER the judgment of the district court AFFIRMED.
