ORDER DISMISSING APPEALS

These are consolidated appeals from orders entered in child custody proceedings. Eighth Judicial District Court, Family Court Division, Clark County; T. Arthur Ritchie, Jr., Judge; Eighth Judicial District Court, Clark County; Linda Marie Bell, Judge.

On August 13, 2019, this court entered an order consolidating these appeals and directing appellant to file and serve a fast track statement by September 12, 2019. The order cautioned that failure to comply could result in the imposition of sanctions.¹ NRAP 3E(i). Appellant failed to comply or otherwise communicate with this court. Accordingly, on October 7, 2019, this court entered an order directing appellant to file and serve the fast track statement by October 21, 2019. The order cautioned that failure to comply could result in the dismissal of these appeals as abandoned.² NRAP 3E(i). To date, appellant has failed to file the fast track

ORDER CONSOLIDATING APPEALS AND REINSTATING BRIEFING

This court previously remanded these matters to the district court for further child custody proceedings in accordance with NRAP 12A. Respondent has now filed a notice in Docket No. 78569 stating that, upon remand, the district court awarded him sole legal and physical custody. Attached to the notice is a copy of the district court's July 3, 2019, order.

These appeals are consolidated for all appellate purposes. NRAP 3(b)(2). Appellant shall have 30 days from the date of this order to file and serve a single fast track statement that addresses all issues in these appeals, including issues arising from the district court's July 3, 2019, order. Respondent shall have 20 days from the date of this order to file and serve the fast track response. NRAP 3E(d)(2). Failure to timely comply with this order may result in the imposition of sanctions. NRAP 3E(i).

It is so ORDERED.
