ORDER DISMISSING APPEAL AND DIRECTING TRANSMISSION OF RECORD

These are pro se appeals from a district court order dismissing a petition for judicial review and a district court order denying a motion to amend the order of dismissal. Eighth Judicial District Court, Clark County; Jessica K. Peterson, Judge.

SUPREME COURT OF NEVADA

(O) 1947A

23-32558

Review of the notice of appeal in Docket No. 87338, which challenges the order denying the motion to amend, reveals a jurisdictional defect. An order denying a motion to amend is not substantively appealable. A Cab, LLC v. Murray, 137 Nev. 805, 821, 501 P.3d 961, 976 (2021). Therefore, the appeal in Docket No. 87338 is dismissed. However, the order denying the motion to amend may be considered as part of the appeal from the order of dismissal in Docket No. 87337. See id. ("Orders deciding an NRCP 59(e) motion are not independently appealable but are reviewed for an abuse of discretion when included with a proper appeal.").

Having reviewed the documents on file in Docket No. 87337, this court concludes that review of the complete record is warranted. NRAP 10(a)(1). Accordingly, within 30 days from the date of this order, the clerk of the district court shall transmit to the clerk of this court a certified copy of the trial court record in District Court Case No. A-22-856803-J. See NRAP 11(a)(2) (providing that the complete "record shall contain each and every paper, pleading and other document filed, or submitted for filing, in the district court," as well as "any previously prepared transcripts of the proceedings in the district court"). The record shall not include any exhibits filed in the district court. NRAP 11(a)(1).

It is so ORDERED.
