JANETTE M. BLOOM
CLERK OF SUPREME COURT
BY J. Richards
CHIEF DEPUTY CLERK

ORDER OF REMAND

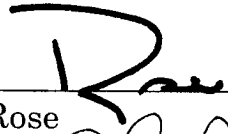

After the settlement judge filed a report indicating that the parties had reached a settlement of this matter, this court entered an order directing appellant to file a stipulation or motion to dismiss or to otherwise inform this court of the status of this appeal. In response, appellant filed a status report indicating that the parties needed more time to finalize their agreement. This court entered an order granting appellant more time to file a stipulation or motion to dismiss.

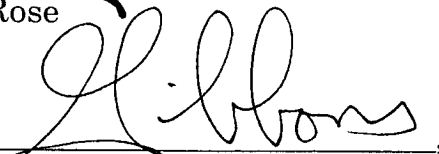

Appellant has now filed a "Motion to Dismiss and Request for Remand." In that motion, appellant represents that "circumstances have so unexpectedly changed over the past . . . months that neither [the] settlement terms reached . . . nor pursuing appellant's original appeal to a decision is now practicable."

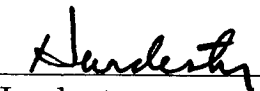

Cause appearing, we grant the unopposed motion. This matter is remanded to the district court for further proceedings in light of the changed circumstances noted by appellant.

It is so ORDERED.¹
