To Whom It May Concern:

The Israeli-American Civic Action Network (“ICAN”) Nevada State Committee is honored to endorse Chief Justice Kristina Pickering for re-election. ICAN represents Nevada’s Israeli-American community consisting of over 10,000 individuals.

In terms of legal credentials and accomplishments, passion for the access of justice, and support for the Israeli-American community, Chief Justice Pickering is an unparalleled candidate for the Nevada Supreme Court, Seat B election.

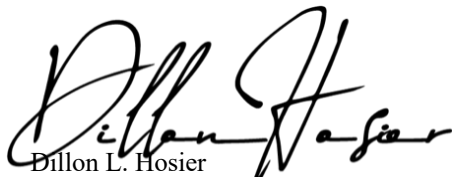

Chief Justice Pickering’s legal credentials are impeccable. She holds 30 years of experience arguing cases in Nevada’s federal and state courts, while earning the highest-level of ranking from prestigious peer review surveys. Moreover, we admire her election as a lifelong member of the “American Law Institute,” a leading organization for legal scholarship in the United States.

Furthermore, in the Nevada Supreme Court, Chief Justice Pickering has decided thousands of cases, led the revision of the Nevada Rules of Civil Procedure, and was instrumental in creating the Nevada Court of Appeals.

With her passion for expanding access to justice, Chief Justice Pickering established the Nevada Supreme Court’s appellate pro bono program, and co-chairs Nevada’s Access to Justice Commission.

Chief Justice Pickering has developed a strong bond with Nevada’s Israeli-American community. Furthermore, our community has greatly benefited from her commitment to expanding access to justice.

We firmly believe that Chief Justice Pickering’s re-election will be beneficial for the civil rights of Nevada’s Israeli-American community, amongst other racial and ethnic groups.
